President's Message

Welcome to summer. While summer is traditionally a time to encourage relaxation, rest, and taking a break, I expect that many of you, like me, are hoping to be out and around, to spend time with family, friends, and quilting buddies, to enjoy a meal at a restaurant, and generally to participate in all the activities we gave up last year as the pandemic ravaged so many lives.

As I write this the County is still unclear regarding reopening procedures for the Vets Building. We will continue to meet via Zoom in July (one program meeting July 21st) and hope to meet in person at the one meeting in August (business meeting August 18th). Read the eblasts and check the website for updates regarding the location of future meetings and activities.

I continue to be grateful for and impressed by all your contributions to our quilt guild and to the larger community. Quilters have generous hearts and hands and your service is appreciated. Do take some time to relax over these summer months and we'll hope for many days of clear air and community health.

Programs

Be sure to attend the July 21 Program Meeting to hear from twin sisters Lisa Norton and Lora Zmak from Material Girlfriends Patterns as they speak on "Quilter's Color Theory - the Psychology of Color". As Lisa notes, color plays an important role in our lives, and the colors we choose when creating a quilt speaks more of our state of mind than we realize. A quilter's stash can represent years of color therapy! Lisa and Lora will explain what color psychology is and share the meanings for the most popular colors. You will be delighted with their trunk show as the sisters share color therapy examples. You can read all about Material Girlfriends and see the patterns they offer at www.materialgirlfriends.com.

Lisa and Lora will also be leading a Zoom Workshop for a New York Beauty Pillow on Saturday, July 24. Sign-ups will be available on the programs page on MQSC.org.

There will be no Program Meeting in August, but in September we will welcome Sheila Frampton Cooper, Fiber Artist, for both a lecture and 6-hour workshop via Zoom. Sheila's work is spectacular, vibrant, and downright exciting! You can check out her website at <https://www.zoombaby.com> to get a peek at what is in store for September!

Thank you to all those that provided feedback from the May Global Quilt Connection Sampler (that is where we found Sheila!). We are working on bookings for 2022 and appreciate all the feedback. We hope to announce next year's Workshops soon. If you have any suggestions, please let me know.

VP Challenge

VP CHALLENGE: GOING, GOING, GONE!!

Some lucky people are already taking trips, but all of us can celebrate a special place with a quilt. This year's VP Challenge is to make a quilt any size with the theme "Oh, the Places You'll Go". The deadline is August 18. Be sure to include a flying goose block and a moon. You have two months to let your imagination and sewing machine go wild! I can't wait to see what you create.

-Pam Brown
MQSC Vice President
mqscvp@gmail.com

Basic Skills

We are happy to have had such a great response for Dena's August 28 Basic Skills class on the different blocks you can make with a 60-degree triangle ruler. At this point, the class is full with 8 students. We are hoping by August 28, Village Sewing Center will be able to accommodate more students, and we have accepted 8 more of you onto a waiting list. It will be up to John (the owner of Village) to determine how many students he will be comfortable having for the class in August.

Next year's Basic Skills Coordinators and Dena have agreed to offer this class again next year. If you are on the current waiting list and are not able to take the class in August because of size constraints, I believe the new coordinators will put your name on the list before it is opened to the rest of the guild.

Please keep up your enthusiasm for these learning opportunities offered by the guild. They are such gifts to us! We have enjoyed working with fantastic guild members who have presented basic skills workshops the past two years, from bags to borders, free motion quilting to braids and those who took the classes. All have been fun and well received.

Cat and Dog Cuddles

Thanks to Janske Silva for her generous donation. Thanks also to those you donated items to Forgotten Felines for their Auction. I know it was much appreciated.

Cuddles will continue to be collected through the First Friday drop offs at Village Sewing, Bolt, and by special arrangement. Cat cuddles should be 17" x 25" to fit in the Forgotten Feline cages. Dog cuddles should be dog sized – anything from small to large dogs.

Thank you for your ongoing support of this project. See you next month!

Friendship Blocks

Hey summer quilters, get your thinking caps on and pick out a block you'd like to have the membership make for you! Remember the beautiful quilt Deana A. made from her Friendship Blocks? Check your Friendship Block credits (remember you get credits also by making Community quilts and Cuddles), and if you have 20 credits you can request us to make blocks for YOU. Margaret and I will help you get started.

If you're not up for that, how about making one or two Friendship Blocks from our website under Things to Do? Whatever you decide, have a wonderful summer!

Block of the Month

Congratulations to Christine Covington on winning the Spa Day blocks. She was so excited!

There is no Block of the Month for July's meeting. However, in August, I can't wait to see all those Pinwheels!

Please turn them in to Village Sewing by Monday, July 5 at noon OR at Bolt by Saturday, August 3.

Colors are unlimited!!! It's County Fair time! Have fun and see you in the summer!

2020-2022 Opportunity Quilt

We had another $400+ in ticket sales over the last few weeks thanks to Trina J. and Dale Y. who were graciously hosted by Swifty Stitches in Carmichael and Cloth Carousel in Vacaville.

The next opportunity to show off and sell tickets to win the beautiful quilt "Finding Peace in the Pieces" is at the Windsor Farmers Market on Sunday, June 27. I encourage you to head to the Farmers Market to say hi and to buy tickets as well.

Stay tuned for additional venues and please let me know if you would be willing to sit with the quilt and sell tickets. Thank you.
